

BEEF UP!

Canadians ate over 1.5 BILLION POUNDS of beef in 2011 – equal to the weight of over 108,000 African elephants!

A BIG BUZZ!

Canadian honey bees produce about 75 MILLION POUNDS of honey every year – enough to fill almost 9.5 Olympic-sized swimming pools!³

IT HAS A NICE WING TO IT

In 2011, Canada produced enough chickens for every person in Canada to eat 18 chicken wings – That's over 643 million wings!¹

FUN FACTS ABOUT Canadian Agriculture

FAMILY FUN

Would you like to work with your family? 98% of Canadian farms are family-owned and operated.

LOTS OF WHEAT, LOTS TO EAT

One bushel of wheat can make enough bread for you to eat a sandwich for breakfast, lunch and dinner for 168 STRAIGHT DAYS!²

¹ Source: Statistics Canada

² Source: Farm and Food Care. Field Crops Fact Sheet

³ Source: The Real Dirt on Farming II

What do you love about Canadian agriculture?

Draw a picture below and let people know! Share your picture with friends and family.

Created August 2015

Share with us too! You could see your picture on one of our social feeds. It's easy:

1 Get your parents' permission and have them take a picture of your drawing or, better yet, you holding your drawing.

2 Send your picture to info@agmorethanever.ca, post it on Twitter or Instagram using @AgMorethanEver or #AgMoreThanEver, or post it on our Facebook page so we can share your ag pride with the world!